Notice of changes to Series U advisory fee rates

IG Wealth Management is lowering advisory fee rates on household investments greater than $1,000,000.

This change means that on or about March 1, 2019:

- New fees rates apply to all assets in a tier instead of calculating a blended rate.
- Series U accounts within your family group will automatically move to the new advisory fee schedule.
- No action is required by you. Series U advisory fees will continue to be deducted from securities in your account as outlined in Series U/TU Advisory Fee and authorization agreement.

NEW SERIES U ADVISORY FEE SCHEDULE

Household investments	Annual Series U advisory fee rate
