EMPLOYMENT INSURANCE (EI)

Effective September 27, 2020, temporary changes will enhance access to EI regular and special benefits. Additionally, EI premium rates will be frozen for two years.

For those not eligible for EI, but need income support once CERB payments are exhausted, three new benefit programs are being introduced on September 27, 2020, available for one year.

- The Canada Recovery Benefit provides a taxable $400 per week benefit for up to 26 weeks for those who need help while looking for work or while under-employed.
- The Canada Recovery Sickness Benefit provides a taxable $500 per week benefit, up to 2 weeks, for workers who are sick or need to self-isolate due to COVID-19.
- The Canada Recovery Caregiver Benefit provides a taxable $500 per week benefit, up to 26 weeks, per household, for those who are unable to work due to caring for a child, disabled family member, or dependent due to COVID-19.

SUPPORT FOR SENIORS

25% reduction in minimum withdrawals for Registered Retirement Income Funds (RRIF) in 2020.

Similar rules apply to individuals receiving variable benefit payments under a defined contribution registered pension plan. Speak to your IG Consultant if you do not require the full current RRIF minimum.

A one-time tax-free payment of $300 will be provided for those eligible for Old Age Security (OAS) pension.

An additional $200 will be paid for those seniors eligible for the Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS). No need to apply – eligible individuals received it automatically during the week of July 6.

DISABILITY TAX CREDIT (DTC)

For certificate holders of the DTC, the Government is to provide a one-time tax-free payment of $600.

Amount will be reduced if also eligible for the one-time GIS and/or OAS special payment. The one-time payment extended to include persons who, as of July 1, 2020, are beneficiaries of CPP Disability benefits, QPP Disability benefits, or one of the disability supports provided by Veterans Affairs Canada.

No need to apply – eligible individuals will receive it automatically this fall.

GOODS AND SERVICES TAX (GST) CREDIT

For low and modest-income families, the Government provided a one-time special payment in early April 2020.

The average additional benefit was close to $400 for single individuals and close to $600 for couples. No need to apply – eligible individuals received it automatically.

CANADA CHILD BENEFIT (CCB) INCREASE

For already qualifying families, you automatically received an extra $300 in May.

Measures Supporting Businesses

CANADA EMERGENCY WAGE SUBSIDY (CEWS)

For businesses that experienced a decrease in revenues of at least 15% in March and 30% in April, May or June 2020.

This program covers 75% of wages up to a weekly maximum subsidy of $847 per employee for the period of March 15 to July 4, 2020. Program expanded as of July 17. For July 5 to December 19, 2020, all businesses with a revenue decline may be eligible for the subsidy. Subsidy amount for periods after July 4, 2020, will depend on revenue decline experienced over certain timeframes. Not based on the number of people employed and is also available to charities and non-profits. Funds began being available to employers in early May. Also includes a 100% refund for certain employer-paid contributions for employees on paid leave.

TEMPORARY SMALL BUSINESS WAGE SUBSIDY (TSBWS)

Provided eligible small employers a temporary wage subsidy for a period of up to three months.

Equal to 10% of remuneration paid during that period, up to a maximum of $1,375 per employee and $25,000 per employer. To benefit, employers could reduce their remittances of income tax withheld on their employees' remuneration – starting in the first remittance period for remuneration paid between March 18 – June 19, 2020. Note: Benefits claimed under the TSBWS reduce benefits claimed under the CEWS.

SUPPORT FOR FARMERS

The near-term credit available to farmers and the agri-food sector will be increased through Farm Credit Canada.

EXTENDING THE WORK-SHARING PROGRAM

The Work-Sharing program provides EI benefits to workers who agree to reduce their normal working hours as a result of developments beyond the control of their employers.

Temporary changes to this program extend the eligibility of such agreements to 76 weeks, ease eligibility requirements, and streamline the application process.

For more information on eligibility and to apply, click here.

CANADA SUMMER JOBS PROGRAM

Temporary changes to the program include increasing the wage subsidy employers can receive, extending the employment end date to Feb 28, 2021, and allowing employers to hire staff on a part-time basis.
